BLOWING UP OF THE TIMOUR NO. 2. SEVENTEEN PERSONS KILLED AND THIRTEEN WOUNDED!

The Elvira arrived from the Missouri river at noon yesterday, bringing down a portion of the officers of the ill-fated steamer Tunour, and we are sorry to say the disaster was more unfortunate than at first reported. Imstead of three lives having been lost, there were rom seventeen to twenty. The following account of the affair we received from Capt. Hannum, who was on board at the time, and was one of the pilots of the boat.

The steamer Timour No. 2. Captain E. F. Dix in command, left Sr. Louis on Thursday afternoon for Brunswick, on the Missouri river, and arrived at a wood yard three miles below Jefferson City on Saturday Morning, took on board some wood, and attwenty minutes past ten o'clock, white rounding out from the wood-yard, all three it is supposed, of her boilers exploded, fearing the boat literally to in fact, I can find no other, which in my defragments from the jack-staff to the wheel-house, and justantly killing seventeen to twenty of the firemen, deck hands and passengers. ty of the firemen, deck hands and passengers.

There were no passengers on board at the time except six or eight, who were all instantly killed and whose names are unknown. The names of the hands on the boat are also unknown, as all the books, papers, money, &c. were lost.

Mr. Charles Eckler, the Clerk and one of the owners of the boat, had his wife, five children and a negro girl on board at the time, tions and diseases arising from an impute or who were in the ladies cabin when the acci-deprayed state of the blood. The Jury in the Dick Case. Dick, S. M. Sullivan, Esq., desired the jutors on Seven Mile, about four miles South of Eaton. 'At the request of the mother of Francis meet in Dayton on Thursday, for the purpose of determining whether they would sign an application to the Governor to commute the sentence of the condemned man to imprisonment for life. Nine jurors responded to the call, and met at the office of T. H. Armstrong, and considered the question proposed for their decision. Eight of the nine refused to interfere in any way to prevent the sentence of death from being carried into effect, and one expressed his willingness to sign the commutation paper. Of the three jurors who were absent, one was understo d to be unwilling to interfere, and the other two would consent to sign the request for commutation, if all their ciates agreed to do the same.

The condemned man has been clinging to the hope that the jury would agree to solicit Gov Medill to save him from the gallows. His argument in favor of this step, is one which involves mainly a financial view of the question. He says the county has been at a heavy expense in trying him; if they should hang hi this outlay would be a total loss; but if he were sent to the Penitentiary he might live thirty years, and earn enough to repay the amount which the county had expended in convicting him. Dick arranged the plan for appealing to the jury, in the extremity in which he finds himself, and sent word to his mother to aid him n carrying it into effect -Dayton Journal.
